God Wants to Be Known

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God’s law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God’s passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke’s Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God’s intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

Treasures From Our Tradition

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the “baptism of the bells,” recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far flung visitors, the bell’s voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty seven tons! There’s no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!

Morning Glory

A morning-glory at my window satisfies me more than the metaphysics of books.

~ Walt Whitman

Please Pray for our Holy Father’s Intention for July

Pope’s Intention: The Integrity of Justice. That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.
Mission Appeal This Week

The diocese of Thanjavur (India) is located on the east coast of South India. It covers an area of 3,687 square miles with a population of 7 million people, of whom only 2,39,630 are Catholics, and the rest are Hindus and Muslims. Being rural and agricultural, the diocese has a great financial burden in maintaining parishes and continuing the work of evangelization. Flood and drought are the common companions of the people. At present, the diocese manages numerous schools, boarding homes (orphanages) for children who have lost one or both of their parents, nursing homes, homes for the destitute, and one home for the mentally disabled run by the sisters of Blessed Mother Theresa of Kolkata.

The diocese is proclaiming God’s Good news of His kingdom to the poor, agricultural laborers and fishing communities. Missionary works include Catechetical training and Formation to lay Catholics from Villages and mission stations about church, bible, Sacraments and prayers. On receiving training, they will go back and teach in their places. People are poor and are not able to contribute to church much. Diocese of Thanjavur runs 53 orphanages, the highest in all the dioceses of India. Orphans and semi orphan children of all religions, numbering about 2500 are living in the orphanages. They are fed, clothed and educated, all for free. More so orphans were added in the aftermath of Tsunami in 2004 in which many were orphaned and lost the family.

Mission funds are also used to train priests and seminarians and to build chapels in the mission stations. The diocese receives a good number of vocations to priesthood and religious life. The diocese needs support to spend for their training and formation. The Diocese also cares for widows and the physically disabled; it provides shelter and dairy animals for the poor and it continues to care for the victims of the Tsunami. Given the situation in the Diocese of Thanjavur, we are in desperate need of your financial support. Please be generous and support the mission of the diocese of Thanjavur. Please keep the Catholics of Thanjavur in your prayers.
